

The Center for Youth

Annual Report

2018-2019

CHANGEMAKERS

IT TAKES COURAGE TO START A MOVEMENT.

IT TAKES COURAGE
EVERYDAY.

IT IS THOSE WHO DESIRE CHANGE IN THE WORLD ...

On a cool but sunny day in May, waiting for summer to start, I am reflecting on the past year and our triumphs and challenges at The Center for Youth. I am also preparing for a presentation about women's leadership, titled Bite Sized Acts of Courage, for it is my deep belief that real change and authentic transformation comes from the every day, consistent actions of those who are tenacious about the greater good.

And that takes me to the theme of this year's annual report: Changemakers - as Ashoka, the social entrepreneur center, coined the term, it is those who desire change in the world and through gathering knowledge and resources can make that change happen – yes the ability to take ideas and challenges and turn them into action. The definition goes on to explain, “these changes don't happen by lone heroes, no, rather it is a team of people, strong institutions and support from all sides” that make Changemakers successful.

At The Center for Youth, a Changemaker is the young teen mother who decides to seek safer housing for herself and her child; or the defendant in Teen Court who understands through a restorative justice practice how to move beyond anger; or the triage counselor who refuses to give up when faced with limited options for service; or a volunteer who takes on a project and leads the way.

Changemakers are creative and determined. Changemakers push through, forge ahead and do not give up on their dreams or those of others. In fact, real Changemakers unlock the dreams that may be hidden or overlooked. The Center for Youth is full of Changemakers and dreamers and this past year we saw what can happen when these forces collide for good.

We faced challenges head on, we identified gaps in services and set about responding with the strength of a talented and diverse staff, a resourceful board, and all of you, our friends and our donors, we thrived.

Thank you again and again,

Elaine

AND THROUGH GATHERING KNOWLEDGE AND RESOURCES CAN MAKE THAT CHANGE HAPPEN.

CRISIS NURSERY

A SENSE OF HOPE IS INSTILLED WITHIN OUR FAMILIES ... WITHIN OUR COMMUNITY.

When emergencies arise and help is needed the most, the Crisis Nursery and Owen's House provide immediate response. As a result, more than 2,000 babies and young children and their families move from crisis to stabilization to security. Our program looks outside the box to support families to meet every overlooked need beyond immediate childcare. With the support of our staff and a team of volunteers, these programs impact real issues facing our community every day.

LGBTQ HOMELESS YOUTH

LGBTQ YOUTH ARE ROUGHLY 7% OF OUR COMMUNITY BUT 40% OF OUR HOMELESS.

The need for safe and secure housing for our youth who identify as LGBTQ is our priority; these youth while approximately 7% of our community represent 40% of the homeless youth population. Our staff, our donors and community supporters have joined hands and hearts to create our Arnett Blvd site, often because of our own experiences. Our supporters are standing with us to create our newest residential site which will respond to these challenges. Opening in 2020, with the generous contributions of so many, our Arnett site will be the only local residential site dedicated to serving this population.

SCHOOL-BASED PROGRAMS

THE CENTER FOR YOUTH ENCOURAGES YOUTH TO BE BRIGHT LIGHTS THAT NEVER DIM.

Nearly 20 years ago, we established our first student support center and school-based programs, and over the years, those services and supports have grown as we continue to encourage youth to be successful, despite overwhelming challenges with homelessness, lack of adult support and struggles academically. Schools have become our important partners in this work, as together we reached more than 15,000 students Pre-K through high school and worked to make their path smoother and more successful.
